

N.C. Transportation Museum News Release www.nctrans.org

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Natalie Alford
Information & Communication Specialist
(704) 636-2889, ext 233

Easter Bunny Express chugs into the N.C. Transportation Museum

SPENCER, N.C.— The Easter Bunny will don his engineer's hat and coveralls once again this year to ride the rails at the N.C. Transportation Museum for the annual Easter Bunny Express, Saturday, Mar. 31 - Apr. 1 and Friday, Apr. 6 - Apr. 7.

In addition to giving treats to youngsters who ride the train, the Easter Bunny will also be the special guest for a free Easter egg hunt at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Mar. 31. Remember to bring your own camera to take a picture with the famous rabbit. A free craft project will be offered every day in the classroom of the Bob Julian Roundhouse.

Easter Bunny Express train rides are offered at 10 and 11 a.m.; 1, 2 and 3 p.m. on Mar. 31 and Apr. 6-7, and at 1:30, 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. Apr. 1. Tickets are $7 for ages three and older, or free for members. Advance tickets can be purchased online. Tickets will also be sold on the day of the event.

For more information visit www.nctrans.org, or call 704-636-2889, toll-free at 877-NCTM-FUN.

###

The North Carolina Transportation Museum, located in historic Spencer Shops, the former Southern Railway repair facility for steam locomotives, is part of the Division of State Historic Sites, a division of the Department of Cultural Resources, www.ncculture.com.

The museum offers free admission and is conveniently located just a few minutes off I-85 in Spencer, N.C., and about an hour from Charlotte, Greensboro or Winston-Salem.